

Featured Immigrant story from Tahir Khan Department of Revenue (DOR)

Indira Melgarejo

Tahir is the Lead Investigator for the Working Families Tax Credit program at the Department of Revenue. He has over 10 years of law enforcement experience, including fraud, theft, and personnel investigations. He has spent several years developing new programs, conducting data analysis, and improving current standards via research for new technologies and training prospects.

Prior to working for the State of Washington, Tahir gained extensive experience in human resources management while working in the private sector. He holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with emphasis in Human Resources Management from University of California, Riverside. Tahir is an expert in areas of personnel investigations, recruitment and retention, and strategic planning. He finds fulfillment in removing barriers to success and helping others achieve their full potential.

Tahir was born in Pakistan, and he grew up in Southern California. He speaks multiple languages including Urdu, Hindi, and Spanish.