Ayanna Colman is the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Innovations Manager for Washington State's Office of Financial Management, State Human Resources Division. Ayanna received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and her JD from Gonzaga University School of Law. She has worked for state government for the last seven years, beginning her state service with the Department of Social and Health Services, Division of Child Support, where she gained experience enforcing child support orders, representing the Division administratively in hearings, and writing policy for the Division. In 2017, she joined the Office of the Governor with an agency known as Results Washington, where she focused on performance management. Over the past year, Ayanna has worked closely with practitioners and partners throughout the enterprise in efforts to advance diversity, equity and inclusion work.
